

Fatherhood Initiative

A new “Healthy Dads Healthy Families” program in Douglas County provides the skills and knowledge men need to build positive, lasting relationships with their children and to strengthen job skills.

The program:

- Is for fathers by fathers
- Offers support and mentoring
- Develops:
 - ⇒ Personal and professional skills
 - ⇒ A life plan
 - ⇒ Employment strategy
- Provides forgiveness for child support arrears

The ongoing 14-week dads group meets 6:30-8:30 p.m., Thursdays at Community Health Facility, 200 Maine Street, 1st floor meeting room
FREE and open to any dad or father figure in Douglas County!

For more information, contact
Healthy Dads Healthy Families Coordinator
Jery Márquez at 785-393-3802 (Cell),
785-856-5338 (office), jmarquez@ldchealth.org